Success

To laugh often and much;
to win the respect of intelligent people
and affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others;
to leave the world a bit better,
whether by a healthy child, a garden patch
or a redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

in our hearts forever

so animated patient

I love you believe

everyone
filled the room with laughter

2003

PRINCIPAL'S LETTER

When I think about the Class of 2003 it brings a smile to my face for so many reasons. Your class is not just composed of those who talk about leadership but those who actually take up a cause and lead. You are a diverse group of students who chose to work together to build unity in the school. You chose not to compete, class against class, but to build a "family" or a school community based on respect for one another. I have been so impressed with you as a class and each of you as individuals. I respect the fact that you have displayed an openness and willingness to come into my office and express your concerns or share your success. As a class, you were driven to make Marlborough High School a better place.

Principal Mary Carlson

You are also a class of "firsts". You were the first class who needed to pass MCAS in order to graduate with a high school diploma. You are the class who will be remembered for taking on smoking as a cause by beautifully painting the bathrooms on the first and second floors. You were the class who ushered in the student ID's. As the class of these firsts you led the student body. I remember watching you standing proudly while your classmates led the school in the Pledge of Allegiance as we commemorated the first anniversary of September 11th.

I believe that, you have had an enormous impact on the Marlborough High School community, and will impact all that you do. You will move on to the world of college, armed forces, and work each as a unique individual with a gift to offer, the gift of you. I thank you for having shared a small part of your life with us at Marlborough High School.

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Having endured, I mean enjoyed, five years here at Marlborough High School, I am not ashamed to admit that I am ready to move on. I would be lying if I said that there weren't days along the way where the last place I wanted to be at 7 am (or 7:19) was the MHS student parking lot. But now, looking back, I realize that there was not one morning among all my days here where I was alone with those thoughts. I suddenly find myself reluctant to leave the shared misery and companionship of those bleary-eyed mornings behind. After surviving MCAS, avoiding wearing ID tags, pulling all-night study sessions, and living through Mrs. Bank's AP Bio class, it is beginning to seem as though all the hardships we met along the way were the most important part of high school.

We could not have appreciated the best times nearly as much had we not first experienced the stress and difficulty of everyday high school life. The special events, from Homecoming to the Prom, the Powderpuff Football Game to Field Day, are more special because they are so uncommon. As a class, we have grown so much closer through our struggles. We don't come together at the rallies or on field day spontaneously; our unity on those days is the result of our common bonds forged through similar experiences. We have spent the majority of our time for the past five years in each other's company, and have gone from a gathering of individuals to the Class of 2003.

I have the utmost faith in my classmate's potential to do great things in the future, and I can't wait to find out what they might be. While some small part of me wishes that I could stay here with them forever, I cannot help but be anxious to see us all on our way to bigger and better things-the things that we can come back and brag about at our reunions. And by then, as Virgil's Aeneid reads, Forsam et haec olim meminisse et juvabit, or "Perhaps one day we will look back on even these things and laugh." As much as high school has been something to get through, it has also been something to savor and to enjoy, and I wouldn't give up one minute of it. I wish the Class of 2003 the best of luck in all future endeavors and hope to see you all in 2008!

POWDER PUFF

November 25, 2002

Memories

"The air was cold. The field was slick with dew and fresh paint for the lines. The stands were full, the announcers cracked wise, coaches issued last minute pep talks to the rugged, uniformed players. Handsome cheerleaders practiced their routines." Wait a minute!! Did you say handsome? Don't you mean pretty? "Actually no, I mean handsome." We are talking about the 2nd annual Powder Puff Football game between the Senior Girls and the Junior Girls, with assistance from Senior and Junior boys acting as Cheerleaders! Even though the tradition is only two years old, it is rapidly becoming one of the most anticipated fundraising events of the year.

This year the Senior girls dominated the game from start to finish, beating the Juniors by a score of 14-0. The Senior strategy was to keep the ball on the ground, pounding the inexperienced Junior line. After a few lucky broken plays and a few questionable calls by Mr. Reynolds, the Seniors were off to the races. At halftime the crowd was regaled by the talents of the newly minted cheerleading force of Junior and Senior boys who engaged in a dance off. While no winner was officially declared in the contest, the Junior boys were clearly the better cheerleaders. (Is that a good thing?) They enjoyed great football and great entertainment for a great cause!

The Senior Girls Won the Game!

"The will to win is important, but the will to prepare is vital."

Below: The junior cheerleaders show their "feminine side" cheering for their team.

"Even when you played the game of your life, it's the feeling of teamwork that you'll remember. You'll forget the plays, the shots, and the scores, but you'll never forget your teammates."

-Anonymous

Left: Juniors Ashley Benevides and Ines Kristo are full of smiles before their tragic loss to the Seniors.

Right: Mr. Murphy is contemplating his next move (while everyone secretly blames him for the Junior's defeat).

"Everyone is looking for certain rush. Racing is where I get mine."

Together, with determination and drive, we trekked through the obstacles of cross country- from the scorching 95 degree weather on our first meet to snow on the ground at districts to the treacherous course of Westboro. What makes the insane number of Midlson and middle school repeats we endure worth cross-country? To any cross country runner the answer is simple; it's all about the puddle jumping. Cheers to an unforgettable girl's cross country season filled with Count Dracula, tree hugs, mud fights, and wogs.

TYSON WHIPPLE

BEFORE YOU WERE BORN, I DREAMT OF YOU...
HOW HANDSOME YOU'D BE SOMEDAY...
SO I WAITED PATIENTLY FOR THAT DAY.

WHEN THEY BROUGHT YOU TO ME SOMEHOW I KNEW...
LIFE WOULD NEVER BE THE SAME...
I HAD TO LOOK AT YOU AND STUDY YOU...
BEFORE YOUR NAME WAS GIVEN...
IT NEEDED TO BE JUST RIGHT FOR THE SON I'D RAISE...
WE THOUGHT OF TYSON AS "SOMETHING STRONG"...
AND AFTER I'D HELD YOU FOR THE LONGEST TIME...
I KNEW WE WEREN'T WRONG.

AS YOU GREW UP, YOUR WILL WAS STRONG.
SOMETIMES DAYS WERE A 'CHALLENGE' FOR ME...
THERE WAS JOY in the midst of THE HARD TIMES...
I PRAYED FERVENTLY THAT YOUR STRONG WILL WOULD... EVENTUALLY SET YOU FREE.

I TRIED TO TEACH YOU ABOUT SENSITIVITY...
TO HAVE LOVE AND RESPECT FOR YOURSELF...
TO BE PROUD OF A JOB WELL DONE... TOUGH TO DO WHEN...
LOOKED AT YOU...
IT WAS LIKE BUTTING HEADS WITH MYSELF!

OFTEN WHEN TWO PEOPLE ARE ALIKE...
A BATTLE OF WILL ARISE...
(THOUGH WE LAUGHED, CRIED AND GOT ANGRY)
I KNEW EVENTUALLY, THAT YOU WOULD WALK...
WITH WISDOM AND HUMILITY.

THERE WERE TIMES WHEN I WAS SO INCREDIBLY LONELY
FOR YOU...

WHILE YOU HAD TO BE ON YOUR OWN...
TO GROW WITH YOUR EXPERIENCES AND MATURE IN YOUR WALK.

HOME REALLY IS WHERE THE HEART IS... TYSON.
AND HEART IS WHERE YOU FIND SUPPORT AND LOVE...
THE JOY I FEEL, IS BEYOND WORDS, WHEN YOU RETURN TO ME.

YOU'VE GROWN SO MUCH AND AS I NOW LOOK UP AT YOU...

LOVE AND PRIDE (DEEP INSIDE) ARE WHAT I FEEL...
WE'VE WORKED AT TRUST AND UNDERSTANDING...
WITH THE HEART AND LOVE WE BOTH HAVE...
TIME HAS HELPED US HEAL.

WHATEVER YOU DO MY DEAREST PRECIOUS SON... AND WHEREVER YOU MAY GO...
THIS MOM WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU FOR WHO YOU ARE YOU MAY STUMBLE AND FALL AS WE ALL DO AT TIMES.
BUT I'LL ALWAYS BE THERE FOR YOU, I LOVE YOU TYSON.

SAMANTHA ARENA

Remember your friends, make some new ones.

Wishing you success and happiness in all that you do.

A dense collage of black and white photographs capturing various moments from a theatrical production. The images show actors in period costumes, including formal gowns, suits, and hats, engaged in scenes of dialogue, dance, and dramatic action. Some photos are framed by white borders, while others are integrated into the collage. The overall theme is theatrical performance.

In Memory

Chris Aucoin lived his short life in Marlborough. He attended Kane School and Marlborough Middle School before attending the high school in the fall of 2002.

Chris was a friendly, young man who touched many lives in his fifteen years. He enjoyed people and participating in all school events. Chris was a motivated learner whose determination helped him during his battle with leukemia. We miss him.
